

MONDAY WE SHAKE THE BARGAIN TREE

The "Plums" will fall thickly, in every section of this Big Store.

The occasion will be a general clearance thruout the store, of all remaining small lots and odd lengths left over from the strenuous selling during the "Great May Sale." For this purpose, we inaugurate our

Our Window Displays tell but half the tale—Be here Monday!

FIRST ANNUAL REMNANT WEEK

Free Embroidery Classes for Children

(In the Art Section.)

With the closing of school, we have prepared daily classes of instruction, between the hours of 9:30 and 11:30 a. m. Send the children in to us. It will be a pleasure to teach them. Pupils will be required to furnish materials, which can be purchased here at a very small cost.

A sale unique in fact of the wonderful economies it offers, providing an outlet for accumulations of wanted Merchandise at underpricings that will rivet the attention of every prudent buyer who reads this announcement. Sale will start promptly at 8 a. m. Monday—and all lots will be sold continuously—as long as they last. Get ready to catch the "Plums"—their number is legion—but first come, first choice, nothing reserved.

ASKS EL PASOANS TO STOP AT CRUCES

Those Making Trip to the Cox Ranch Urged to Return Through Cruces.

The El Paso Herald's automobile leaves the Herald office at 2:20 o'clock every afternoon, except Sundays, for all points on county road and for Las Cruces. The car returns to El Paso from The Herald's Las Cruces office (the Postoffice Newsstand) at 10 a. m. Arrangements can be made with J. E. Johns, at Las Cruces, for delivery of The Herald. Items for the Las Cruces department will be given care of attention. It is mailed to Mrs. Herbert Yeo, P. O. box 42, or telephone to her at phone 273.

Las Cruces, N. M., May 31.—The people of Las Cruces invite the El Paso people who are going to make the drive to Cox's ranch Sunday to return by way of Las Cruces. The road between El Paso and Las Cruces is in very fair condition, and the new road from Las Cruces to Organ City has been completed, and has been in use for several weeks, and today there are six teams and about 20 men going over this road, giving it the finishing touches to put it in prime condition for travel. The main teams were sent out from Las Cruces Friday afternoon, so they would be ready for work early today.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. Paulkner entertained quite a number of young people last evening in honor of their guest, Miss Marion Lemon of El Paso, who is the guest of Miss Ruth Day, Miss Lillian Parker, of Santa Fe.

The young people gathered about 8 o'clock in the Paulkner home on Miranda avenue, which was artistically decorated with cut flowers, chiefly roses. About one-half hour later a May basket was presented and the young people instructed to follow the basket, which was carried by Master William Paulkner, who first went to the airplane where the young people enjoyed a pleasant hour. After leaving the airplane they went to the Cox ranch, where they found to their surprise, Mrs. Paulkner there to welcome them.

Mrs. Paulkner is a sister of Mrs. Paulkner. The remainder of the evening was spent in the Clingo home, and dancing was the form of amusement. The following guests were present: Misses Mildred Lindauer and Charles Carter of El Paso; Lillian Parker, Spring Hill, Kansas; Lillian Parker, Marion Lemon, Blanche Cox, Rodolfo Hawley, Ruth Day, Roman Alton, Katharine Holman, Alice Harter, and Katherine Guy; Messrs. Richard Queanberry, Jack Maynard, Roy Baker, Judge E. A. McCallum, Theodore Lester, Emmett Isaacs, Jesse Isaacs, Raymond Frenger, Fred Lemon, Edwin Holt, Nil Lane, and Hal Cox.

The memorial services held in the armory yesterday afternoon were attended by a number of people and an impressive service was held. H. Sloan, editor of the Catholic Banner, had charge of the program which was arranged by the president of the women of the U. A. S., Mrs. Henry Stoes. Rev. Mr. Sands gave the invocation and was followed by the chorus of girls and audience singing "Hail Columbia." Lincoln's address at Gettysburg was read by S. W. Sherry.

give a party tonight for visiting girls at their home, south of Las Cruces. Misses Fannie French and Beth Foster leave here this evening for Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia. They set sail from Philadelphia for Europe. They will be joined on the trip at Philadelphia by their sisters, Miss Floy French and Lute Foster.

NEW SUPPLEMENT OF T. & P. IS FROM MARSHALL

W. W. Lynch, superintendent of the Texas & Pacific road at Marshall, Texas, has been appointed superintendent of the Rio Grande division, with headquarters at Big Springs. He succeeds A. O. Whittington. Mr. Lynch learned the railroad business as a telegraph operator back in Louisiana, and has steadily risen to more important positions.

GARAGE ROOF BURNS.

Fire shortly after 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon burned off a portion of the roof of a garage at the home of F. J. Feldman, corner Prospect and Lawton. There was no automobile in the garage, and it is not known how the fire started. Servants' quarters are above the garage and it was in these that the blaze started.

TWO TRAINS OF ELECTRIC CARS.

Two trains made up exclusively of Pacific Electric street cars passed through El Paso Saturday en route to Los Angeles from the cars shown in the east. The "P. E." cars were made up in two trains of 22 cars each and were run on their own wheels through to the coast over the S. P.

U. S. AND GREAT BRITAIN RENEW ARBITRATION TREATY

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Secretary Bryan and Sir Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, late today signed a renewal for five years of the general arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain, which expires on June 4.

Dressed Chicken.

She wanted to surprise her husband with a chicken dinner, but after she had gone out into their little chicken run and captured a toothsome-looking young rooster there, she lost her nerve. She simply couldn't bear to hand it to the axe. There was a small bottle of chloroform in the house, however, so she decided to prepare his rooster for the oven via the anaesthesia route.

He succumbed quickly, but to her horror he recovered consciousness as soon as she had finished plucking him. Stricken with remorse then, she clothed his naked form in a hastily made suit of white flannel, that fitted him like a regular "varsity" garment. Then she turned him out into the chicken run again.

Editors insist upon happy endings of stories nowadays, so the remainder of this tale is better left untold. Sufficient to say that although fine feathers make fine birds, white flannel never made this rooster himself again.

Home Happiness.

Probably nineteen-twentieths of the happiness you will ever have, you will get at home. The independence that comes to a man when his work is over, and the feeling that he has run out of the storm into the quiet harbor of home, where he can rest in peace and with his family, is something real.

Apology.

Confuser—"Now, sir, you admit that the card you have just taken out of the handkerchief is the queen of clubs, yet the card you chose and securely tied there—namely, the ace of spades—I now produce from this hat." Timid Volunteer—"So sorry—my mistake." Punch.

IT WILL TAKE JUST ONE MINUTE OF YOUR TIME to read this extract from the "Practical Dairyman." BUTTERMILK is very nutritious and the casing of the milk exists in a finely coagulated state, a more easily digested form than when in coarse curd. It is largely advocated in Germany for cases of feeble indigestion, even for babies, because, unlike fresh milk which readily curdles in the stomach, forming large hard lumps, the casing in buttermilk is already curdled but finely divided. Drink it freely. Phone your order to 240.
